

Celebrating Remarkable People: A Writing Frame

Learning objective: To write a short biography about a person who has made a positive impact on history.

Follow these steps to write your biography. Use the sentence starters to help you. Think about the person's life, their achievements, and why they are important today.

History is full of incredible people who worked hard to make the world a better place for everyone.

Word bank: because · however · famous for · inspired · made a change · brave · kind · important · later in life · firstly · in addition

1. Introduction: Who is the person you have chosen and why are they well-known? Start your writing with: I have chosen to write about... (2 marks)

2. Early Life: Where were they born and what was their childhood like? Start your writing with: When they were growing up... (2 marks)

3. Achievements: What did they do that was important? Start your writing with: They are famous because they... (2 marks)

4. Conclusion: Why do you admire this person today? Start your writing with: I admire this person because... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you add one interesting fact about your chosen person that would surprise your classmates?