- The Rule of Three: Using three words or phrases together creates a rhythm that makes your point more memorable to your audience.
- Emotive Language: Choose words that stir feelings, such as 'devastating', 'inspiring', or 'heart-warming', to connect with your listeners' emotions.
- Rhetorical Questions: Asking a question where the answer is obvious encourages the audience to agree with your point of view without you having to state it directly.
- Evidence and Fact: A strong argument is built on a foundation of truth; always back up your opinions with specific statistics, examples, or expert findings.
- The Counter-Argument: A great debater anticipates what the other side might say and prepares a polite but firm rebuttal to show why their own argument is stronger.
