PSHE Assessment: Celebrating Diversity and Black History

Learning objective: To understand the importance of Black History Month and celebrate the contributions of Black people to British history and culture.

Read each question carefully. Use the word bank if you need help with spelling. Write your answers in the spaces provided.

In the UK, Black History Month is celebrated in October. It is a time to learn about the achievements and stories of Black people throughout history. Ellie the Elephant loves learning about these stories because they show us how much people have done to make our world a fairer and better place for everyone.

Word bank: contribution · diversity · equality · history · respect · courage

1. 1. In which month do we celebrate Black History Month in the UK? (1 mark)

2. 2. Why is it important to learn about Black history? Use the word 'equality' in your answer. (2 marks)

3. 3. Name one way that learning about different people's history helps us show 'respect' to others in our school. (3 marks)

4. 4. Think of a person who has shown 'courage' to make the world better. Describe what they did and why it was important. (4 marks)

5. 5. Extended Writing: Write a short paragraph explaining why celebrating 'diversity' is good for our community. Start your answer with: 'Celebrating diversity is important because...' (5 marks)
