A Guide to Bonfire Night with Leo the Lion

Join Leo the Lion as we explore the history and traditions of the 5th of November!

- Bonfire Night is celebrated on the 5th of November every year to mark the failed Gunpowder Plot of 1605.
- Guy Fawkes was one of the men involved in the plot to hide gunpowder under the Houses of Parliament.
- The plot was discovered before it could happen, which led to celebrations across London for the King's safety.
- Today, we celebrate with bright fireworks to represent the explosions that never happened.
- Many people enjoy eating warm food like jacket potatoes or toffee apples while watching the display.

Did you know? Did you know? The rhyme 'Remember, remember the fifth of November' was written to help people keep the story of the Gunpowder Plot alive for future generations!
