Nova the barn owl sat perched on the highest branch of the ancient oak tree. Her feathers were the color of soft, pale cream, speckled with tiny flecks of silver that caught the moonlight. She wore a pair of small, round spectacles perched right on the tip of her beak. Nova was known throughout the forest for her brilliant mind. Whenever a mystery needed solving, she would tilt her head to the side, blink her large, amber eyes, and ask a question that made everyone stop and think.
