Non-Chronological Report: The Marvels of the Natural World

Learning objective: To structure a non-chronological report using subheadings, technical vocabulary, and an informative tone.

Use this template to create an informative report about an animal or habitat you have researched. Ensure you use formal language and organize your facts under clear headings. Remember to check your spelling and use a range of punctuation to make your writing engaging for the reader.

Word bank: habitat · characteristic · predator · prey · adaptations · nocturnal · classification · ecosystem · significant · features

1. Introduction: Provide a general overview of your chosen subject and explain why it is interesting. (3 marks)

2. Appearance and Characteristics: Describe what your subject looks like and any unique physical features it possesses. (4 marks)

3. Habitat and Diet: Explain where your subject lives and what it typically eats to survive in the wild. (4 marks)

4. Fascinating Facts: List two or three surprising or lesser-known details about your subject. (3 marks)

5. Conclusion: Summarise the importance of your subject and provide a final thought for the reader. (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Ask Nova the owl for help: Research one specific adaptation your animal has that helps it survive in its environment. Add a 'Did You Know?' box to your report containing this fact.
