Celebrating Black History Month with Ellie the Elephant

Step into the story of our world and celebrate the amazing people who have shaped our history!

- Black History Month is celebrated every October in the UK to help us remember and honor the stories of Black people from the past and present.
- Many Black inventors have created things we use every day, such as traffic lights and parts of our computers, making our lives safer and better.
- Black poets, artists, and musicians have shared beautiful stories and songs that help us understand different cultures and feelings.
- Learning about history helps us see how people have worked together to make sure everyone is treated with kindness and respect.
- By sharing these stories, Ellie the Elephant shows us that everyone has a special part to play in the history of our world.

Did you know? Did you know? Black History Month is a time when we look back at the past to learn about the incredible inventions, bravery, and talent of Black people. It is a time to say 'thank you' for the changes they made to make the world a kinder and fairer place for everyone!
