Remember, Remember: All About Bonfire Night

Wrap up warm and join Leo the Lion for a glowing celebration of history and safety!

- Bonfire Night is held every year on the 5th of November to remember a historical event from 1605.
- Traditional treats eaten on this night often include toffee apples and parkin cake.
- We wear thick coats, scarves, and gloves because it is usually very cold outside in November.
- Sparklers should always be held at the bottom with a gloved hand and kept far away from faces.
- We should always stand well back from the bonfire and listen carefully to the adults in charge.

Did you know? Did you know? Bonfire Night is celebrated every year on the 5th of November to mark the night in 1605 when a plot to harm the Houses of Parliament was stopped. Today, we remember this event by lighting bonfires and watching colorful fireworks in the night sky!
