

Fall Science Word Mat

Learning objective: To learn and understand key scientific vocabulary related to the seasonal changes of fall.

Key Vocabulary

Use this word mat to help you explore the changes in nature during fall. The terms are grouped into three categories. The 'Changing Trees', 'Weather and Light', and 'Animals in Fall'.

|                     |                                                |                      |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Explain why deci... | What is the differ...                          | Why is it importa... |
| How does the ch...  | Nova the owl wan... what is the connection ... |                      |