Rosa’s French Greetings Adventure

Learning objective: I can greet people in French and use basic phrases to talk about myself.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practise the pronunciation of the greetings together by saying them out loud to each other.

Welcome to French class! Today, we are learning how to say hello and goodbye with Rosa the parrot. Remember, French nouns have a gender: 'le' is for masculine words and 'la' is for feminine words. Example: 'Bonjour' means 'Hello'. To say 'I have', we say 'J'ai'.

Word bank: Bonjour (bon-ZHOOR) - Hello · Salut (sa-LOO) - Hi/Bye · Au revoir (oh-ruh-VWAHR) - Goodbye · J'ai (zhay) - I have · J'aime (zhem) - I like

1. Rosa is meeting a new friend. Match the greeting to the English meaning by drawing a line: 1. Bonjour, 2. Au revoir. [A: Goodbye, B: Hello]. (2 marks)

2. Fill in the blank using the word bank: '_____! Je m'appelle Mo.' (Use a formal greeting for meeting a teacher). (1 mark)

3. Translate this sentence into English: 'J'aime le chocolat.' (2 marks)

4. Rosa has two apples. Write the French phrase for 'I have two apples' using the word bank. (2 marks)

5. Imagine you are leaving your classroom at the end of the day. Write a sentence in French to say goodbye to your teacher. Give a reason why it is polite to greet your teacher. (3 marks)

Draw: A colourful illustration of Rosa the parrot wearing a small scarf, perched on a branch next to a signpost that says 'Bienvenue'.

Extension challenge: Try writing a short dialogue between two children meeting in the playground, using at least three different French phrases you have learned today.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources