Expressing Opinions in French

Learning objective: I can express and justify my opinions on hobbies and school subjects in French.

About 25 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to say the French sentences out loud to practice their pronunciation.

Read each question carefully. For translation tasks, ensure your grammar matches the gender of the nouns. Example: 'J'aime le sport car c'est amusant' (I like sport because it is fun).

Rosa the parrot is helping her friends in the playground. She says: 'J'adore le football car c'est passionnant. Je n'aime pas les maths car c'est ennuyeux.'

Word bank: J'adore (zh-ah-DOR) - I love · J'aime (zh-EM) - I like · Je n'aime pas (zhuh nem PAH) - I don't like · car (kar) - because · c'est (say) - it is · ennuyeux (on-nwee-UH) - boring · passionnant (pa-see-oh-NAH) - exciting

1. Translate the following phrase into English: 'J'adore le dessin car c'est amusant.' (2 marks)

2. Write a French sentence to say: 'I like history because it is interesting.' (Use 'intéressant' for interesting). (3 marks)

3. Identify which of these two phrases expresses a negative opinion: A) J'aime la musique. B) Je n'aime pas la lecture. (2 marks)

4. Complete the sentence using a reason: 'Je n'aime pas la géographie car c'est...' (3 marks)

5. Explain why you must use 'car' in your French sentences. Give an example to support your answer. (5 marks)

6. Extended Writing: Write a short paragraph (40-50 words) in French about two school subjects. Include one positive opinion and one negative opinion, giving a reason for each. Marks are awarded for correct grammar and vocabulary use. (10 marks)

Draw: A friendly parrot wearing a small red scarf, perched on a branch in a UK primary school playground.

Extension challenge: Total: /25. Challenge: Write three sentences in French about your favourite hobby, adding a conjunction like 'mais' (but) to contrast your opinion.
