Rosa's School Bag Adventure

Learning objective: I can name items in my school bag and use simple French sentences to describe them.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to say the French words out loud to practise their pronunciation.

Rosa the parrot is packing her school bag for her lessons in London. Match the French word from the word bank to the correct school item. Then, use the sentence frame to say what you have.

Example: If you have a pen, write: 'J'ai un stylo' (I have a pen).

Remember: 'un' is used for masculine words and 'une' is used for feminine words.

Word bank: un stylo (un stee-loh) - a pen · un livre (un lee-vruh) - a book · une règle (oon reg-luh) - a ruler · une gomme (oon gum) - an eraser · un sac (un sack) - a bag

1. 1. What is the French word for a book? (Hint: it uses 'un') (1 mark)

2. 2. Complete the sentence: 'J'ai _____ gomme.' (I have an eraser) (1 mark)

3. 3. Translate this sentence into English: 'J'ai un stylo.' (1 mark)

4. 4. Write a sentence in French saying you have a ruler. (2 marks)

5. 5. Rosa has a bag. How would you write 'a bag' in French? (1 mark)

Draw: Rosa the parrot wearing a small school backpack, surrounded by school supplies like pens, books, and rulers on a wooden desk.

Extension challenge: Can you find one more school item at home (like a pencil or scissors) and look up the French word for it to add to your list?

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____
