A Trip to the French Market with Rosa

Learning objective: I can use French vocabulary to describe shopping for food and express my opinions about items.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to say the French phrases out loud using the pronunciation guide provided.

Read the short passage about Rosa's shopping trip. Use the word bank to help you understand the French phrases. When answering questions about prices, remember to use the £ symbol. Example: If an item costs three pounds, write '3'.

Rosa est au marché à Londres. Elle achète des fruits pour ses amis. Rosa voit des pommes rouges. Elles coûtent £2 le kilo. Rosa dit: 'J'aime les pommes, c'est bon marché.' Ensuite, elle voit des oranges. Elles coûtent £5 le kilo. Rosa dit: 'Je n'aime pas les oranges, c'est trop cher.'

Word bank: J'aime (zh-em) - I like · Je n'aime pas (zhuh-nem-pah) - I do not like · cher (share) - expensive · bon marché (bon-mar-shay) - cheap/good value · le marché (luh-mar-shay) - the market · la pomme (lah-pum) - the apple

1. Where is Rosa shopping today? (1 mark)

2. How much do the apples cost per kilogram? (1 mark)

3. Does Rosa like the oranges? Explain your answer using evidence from the text. (2 marks)

4. Translate the phrase 'J'aime les pommes' into English. (1 mark)

5. If Rosa buys 2kg of apples and 1kg of oranges, what is the total cost in pounds? (2 marks)

Draw: A colourful illustration of a French market stall in London with baskets of shiny red apples and bright oranges, with Rosa the parrot wearing a small scarf nearby.

Extension challenge: Write two sentences in French about a food item you like and one you do not like, using the phrases from the word bank.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources