Rosa's Spanish Greeting Party

Learning objective: I can greet people and introduce myself in Spanish.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practise saying the phrases out loud together to help with the pronunciation.

Rosa the parrot is hosting a party! Match the Spanish greeting to the correct English meaning by writing the letter in the box. Here is a worked example: 'Hola' means 'Hello'. You would write the letter next to 'Hello'.

Word bank: Hola (OH-la) - Hello · Buenos días (BWEH-nos DEE-as) - Good morning · Adiós (ah-dee-OSS) - Goodbye · ¿Cómo te llamas? (KOH-mo te YA-mas) - What is your name? · Me llamo (me YA-mo) - My name is

1. 1. Match the Spanish word to the English: A) Hola, B) Adiós. [ ] Goodbye, [ ] Hello. (2 marks)

2. 2. You see a friend at school at 9:00 am. Which Spanish greeting do you use? (Hint: See the word bank) (1 mark)

3. 3. Write the missing word: '¿_____ te llamas?' (Use the word bank to find the answer). (1 mark)

4. 4. Complete this sentence about yourself: 'Me llamo _____.' (1 mark)

5. 5. True or False: 'Adiós' is used when you arrive at a party. (1 mark)

Draw: Rosa the colourful parrot wearing a small party hat, standing next to a speech bubble with the word 'Hola' written inside.

Extension challenge: Try to find a partner. Take turns asking '¿Cómo te llamas?' and answering 'Me llamo...' in Spanish. Can you do it without looking at your sheet?

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources