Exploring the United Kingdom: Regions and Nations

Learning objective: To identify and describe the key regions and nations that make up the United Kingdom, and understand their geographical features.

Read the front of each flashcard to test your knowledge about the geography of the UK. Flip the card mentally (or check the answer provided) to see if you are correct. Finn the Dolphin has helped us map these out!

Which four countries make up the United Kingdom?	England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland.
What is the capital city of England?	London.
Which country in the UK is famous for its rugged Highlands and lochs?	Scotland.
What is the capital city of Wales?	Cardiff.
Which body of water surrounds the United Kingdom on all sides?	The sea (including the Atlantic Ocean, North Sea, and Irish Sea).
What is the capital city of Northern Ireland?	Belfast.
What is the capital city of Scotland?	Edinburgh.
True or False: The United Kingdom is an island nation.	True.
In which UK country would you find the city of Manchester?	England.
What is a 'region'?	An area of land that has common features, like the same weather, landscape, or culture.
Which UK country is located to the west of England?	Wales.
Finn the Dolphin loves the UK's 'coastline'. What is a coastline?	The place where the land meets the sea.